

Educational Leave

Policy The State may provide leave with pay or leave without pay for certain types of educational courses. The references to these specific policies are set out below.

Educational Leave With Pay The State provides leave with pay for certain types of educational courses. For details, see Academic Assistance Policy.

Extended Educational Leave With Pay State agencies may provide extended educational leave if certain criteria are met and approved by the Office of State Personnel. For details, see Academic Assistance Policy.

Extended Educational Leave Without Pay Extended educational leave without pay shall be granted in accordance with the normal leave policy as outlined in the Leave Without Pay Policy.
